

LOCAL MENTION

A BUNDLE OF GOOD CHEER

It is only a poor sort of happiness that could ever come by caring very much about our own narrow pleasures. We can only have the highest happiness by having wide thoughts, and much feeling for the rest of the world as well as ourselves; and this sort of happiness often brings so much pain with it that we can only tell it from pain by its being what we would choose before everything else, because our souls see it is good.

A SPLENDID CAR

W. C. Robinson drove a new 1917 model, 8-cylinder, 7-passenger Oldsmobile out from St. Louis Wednesday, covering the intervening 78 miles in four and a half hours. While this was pretty good going, no effort was made to make time, moving along at an apparently moderate speed.

But the unusual mechanism of this car is such as to give it that easy, painless car movement, that causes its occupants to feel that they are merely moving along, when, in fact, the machine may be making passenger train time. Mr. Robinson will use this car in his garage for demonstration purposes. It is a real "niftie" $1400 car.

DON'T GIVE CHICKENS SALT

Rob Boswell had a little experience the other day that he is not likely to repeat soon. He had some sick chickens and asked his mother what would be good to give them, and she suggested a small dose of salts for each. Rob understanding her to mean ordinary salt proceeded to carry out her instructions. The startling result was the death of fourteen fine chickens. It is a well known fact among poultry raisers that a dough of bran or meal with salt in it will kill a brood of young chickens about as quick as anything you can feed them.

DEATH OF GOOD MAN

Lawrence O. Wells arrived in Bonne Terre Monday morning with the body of his brother, William A. Wells, who died at the St. Francois Hospital, in Colorado Springs, Colo., on Saturday, Feb. 17th, of acute nephritis, which was superinduced by primary tuberculosis. Deceased had been in Colorado Springs for the past two years, in the hope of winning back his health.

Wm. A. Wells had been a citizen of Bonne Terre practically his entire life, being 45 years of age. He never married, and is the first of a family of seven boys to pass to the Great Beyond. He was well known throughout St. Francois county, being respected by all who knew him for his sturdy, manly qualities.

The funeral services were conducted in Bonne Terre Monday afternoon, and were largely attended by many sorrowing friends. The heart-broken old mother attended the last sad rites, and all the brothers were present with the single exception of Emmett E. Wells, who is in Colorado Springs, and whose health would not permit of his coming.

CHILD SERIOUSLY SCALDED

TO ORGANIZE SOUTHEAST

MISSOURI BASEBALL LEAGUE Word comes to The Times from Perryville that the efforts which have been in progress for some time past, to organize a Southeast Missouri Baseball League, is now approaching a successful culmination. As proposed, Flat River will represent St. Francois county in this organization, through the aid of Barney Peltz, of Farmington, who was until quite recently, a top-notch in professional baseball.

Our information is that the alignment of Mr. Peltz with this new league is considered a most fortunate circumstance, inasmuch as it comes at a time when the acquisition of such a force is all that is necessary to drive the work of organization to a speedy, successful conclusion. Barney was at one time the mainstay of the St. Louis Browns' pitching staff, and is one of the few who have retired from professional baseball before being counted out by old Father Time. Though seldom essaying to pitch, he still puts up a creditable game at short in addition to being a good hitter. The league will be considerably strengthened by his services as a player.

However—aside from the prestige gained—the chief value of Mr. Peltz's addition will be along administrative lines. His long connection with organized baseball must have fitted his mind with a veritable storehouse of constructive knowledge that will prove invaluable in the work of organization.

In reply to a letter recently written him by Perryville promoters of this enterprise, Mr. Peltz writes as follows:

Farmington, Mo., Feb. 17, 1917. Dear Sir:—I am in receipt of your letter and clippings, and in reply to same will say that I will take matter you mention up with the Flat River people next week and will try and come to Ste. Genevieve, Mo., Feb. 25 for the meeting. Please let me know at what time the meeting is called at Ste. Genevieve; if I cannot come, will try and have a man there. I am very enthusiastic in the matter, and if we do not come in the league, I am at your service for good athletics. You can count on me to help work out a method of running the league. I thank you for your kindness in the matter by asking us to come to the meeting.

Hoping to hear from you at once, Yours very truly,

BARNEY PELTZ.

BASKET BALL

Farmington High Boys Win from Bonne Terre.

The Farmington High School boys and the Bonne Terre High School boys played a fast interesting game of basketball on the Bonne Terre Y. M. C. A. court last Saturday night, Farmington being victors by a score of 30 to 23.

The game was a close one and during the first half the Bonne Terre boys were leading by a few points, but just before the first half ended the Farmington boys threw three field goals, which made the score at the end of the first half 10 to 7 in favor of Bonne Terre. The second half started off with both sides fighting hard for victory and it was soon evident that Farmington would be victors, as they were working their signals and putting the ball in the basket quite frequently. The final score as above stated, was 30 to 23, in favor of Farmington.

Schaefer starred on Farmington's team, with 18 points, and LePere second, with 10. Whitehead starred on Bonne Terre team, with 15 points, and Banta second, with 8. The local High School boys have defeated the Bonne Terre in two games this season.

Girls Win by Close Score.

Preceding the boys' game, the Farmington girls and the Bonne Terre girls played an exciting game which resulted in a close score of 7 to 5 in favor of Farmington. The game was a hard-fought one from start to finish, neither side scoring until the last of the first half, and Bonne Terre throwing no field goals while the Farmington girls threw two. The second half was a duplicate of the first and seemed to be closer as both sides were battling hard, but the Farmington girls proved themselves to be the stronger, by the above stated score of 7 to 5.

Dobbins starred for Farmington, with 4 points, and Bailey second, with 3 points. Hill starred on Bonne Terre, with 5 points, being the only one to score at all.

COUNTY SCHOOL NOTES

The elementary school, urban and rural, is the foundation, the full basement, on which the superstructure of all higher education must be raised. Whether pupils are to live their lives in this basement or whether they are to erect upon it a one-story cottage in the form of secondary education or a two-story dwelling of college education, the foundation and basement should be of the best. It is in the interest of this foundation that we are so much concerned.

—Kennedy. What is an Approved Rural School? What is the Alternation System? What should our district do at the Annual Meeting? What has a district to expect from the teacher and what has the teacher to expect from the district? These topics and others will be taken up at the School Board Convention on March 10th.

Some of the advantages of an approved school are as follows: 1. Better qualified teachers. 2. Longer terms and hence more public funds. 3. Better libraries and other essential equipment. 4. Better sanitary conditions for the promotion of health and comfort among the pupils.

5. Greater inspiration to the patrons to be content only with the best. 6. Better teaching and general school work. Miss Viola Thurman of the Roughly school recently gave an entertainment and box supper which proved very successful both socially and financially. The proceeds, $22.40, will be applied in payment on their new heating system.

Following is an additional list of pupils recently awarded certificates for perfect attendance: Bessie Rubottom, Gladys Cook, Edna Snyder, Roy Calverd, Shelton Thomasson, Paul Thomasson, Orville Harris, Rosa Isenman, Nella Wells, Lulu Cloninger, Lorena Cloninger, Russell Haile, and Marvin Snyder of the Cedar Falls school; Herschel Watts of the Rockwood school; Hazel Mund, May Reed, and Homer Mund of the Patterson school; and Homer L. Knight, Leo Miller, Lulu Williamson and Willis Penberthy of the Mitchell school.

People interested in school improvement should not forget the School-Board Convention, which will be held at the Farmington High School building on March 10th. Every day finds something new and interesting developing in connection with this program. No school officer can afford to be absent. Several topics are insistently demanding attention at this convention, topics that are of vital importance and necessarily demanding careful, deliberate and intelligent discussion.

Teachers in filling out term reports should fill every blank and make it unnecessary for reports to be returned for correction before being accepted. Of course all blanks should be filled, otherwise they would not have been placed on the report. If in doubt as to the meaning of any particular item, teachers should write this office before attempting to make out this report.

Attention is again called to the teachers' examination March 2 and 3, due announcement of which appears in another column of this paper.
